Minutes from February 18, 2015
Bolton Police Department

13 people present, representing 12 member agencies.

President's Report: President Delp thanked everyone for attending and acknowledged that it has been a trying month with the weather conditions and illness taking its toll.
Training Day scheduled for April 9, Active Shooter, at the International. Fee is $100.
President Delp will be attending 911 goes to Washington.
Discussion on last month's presentation took place. Ma 911 and Emergency Call Works lack of communication to MCSA and late cancelation caused some problems but everything worked out.
911 Commission: December, January and February meetings were canceled.
Verizon appears to be getting out of the 911 business. They are telling people that they will not be servicing copper lines in certain area.
Grants are in flux do to the lack of information being dispersed. 911 is paying some requests at 75% but not saying what they cut if cuts are made.
Lee will be leaving for 911 Goes to Washington on Saturday.

There will be a three day CISM Conference on March 25, 26 and 27 in Wilmington for anyone interested in becoming a peer supporter. There is no cost. If you are interested contact Don.
The Police Chief's Trade Show is scheduled for April 1 in Marlborough. We will have a table and anyone interested in staffing the table can contact Don.
Trinity is hosting a course geared to EMS. Anyone interested is welcome to attend.
CCM Course has been complete. Five people from Mass have graduated. MCSA is planning a Dinner in March for all CCM graduates and members.
